Dear Parents and carers,

It has been wonderful this week to welcome parents and carers into school to look at the children's incredible Remembrance art work and for children to share their work over the term, thank you!

Can I remind parents to please not block the pavement at the end of school, the zone is available for you to wait.

Value of the week – Unique

We have thoroughly enjoyed discussing the theme of Anti Bullying Week, #One Kind Word during our assemblies and in the classrooms this week. The children have shown such respect for each other whilst discussing and sharing their points of view and experiences.

Online Safety

Fictional violence has long been woven into certain strands of childhood play – from cowboys and Indians through playground army games to emulating Star Wars characters or superheroes. Call of Duty's recreations of battlefield conditions, however, are so realistic that it's unsurprising to hear parental concerns about the game's possible effect on younger players. This week's guide has all the details and highlights potential risks.

SISA updates

We are rapidly approaching the St Ives School Christmas Fair. Advance raffle tickets are on sale. Please see your year reps at drop off/pick up. We have cash prizes, vouchers and lots of great things on offer. Please see attached for an overview of prizes. The entry to the fair is £1 per family and in return you will get a raffle ticket on the door. On the day of the event further raffle tickets can be purchased at the entrance and on the Year 2 and Year 6 stalls.

If anyone has anything they can donate or knows of any local businesses that can, that would be really appreciated. Please contact Sarah Vincent (Yr2) or Ruth Butcher (Yr6).

If anyone has any Christmas clothing they are willing to donate for an internal stall please could these be given to Sarah Vincent, Mel Ross or Ruth Butcher.
